Oliver North: Pinoys doing it right

By Alan Page

IN THE EYES OF FORMER AMERICAN SOLDIER Oliver North of Iran-Contra fame, the Philippines' military is doing everything right in the fight against global terrorism.

North, who served in the Vietnam War, was a key figure in the Iran-Contra scandal, which involved the sale of arms to Iran and the funneling of the proceeds to the Contras in Nicaragua.

No malaria outbreak in Antipolo, says health official

By Rosemarie L. Salas

ANTIPOLO, Philippines — A health official here said that there is no malaria outbreak in the city, despite reports that several people have died from the disease in the past few days.

Dr. Romeo C. Salas, chief of the Antipolo City Health Office, said that the deaths were isolated cases and not part of a larger outbreak. He said that the city has a low incidence of malaria, and that the deaths were likely due to other factors, such as lack of medical attention or underlying health conditions.

Salas said that the city has a strong surveillance system in place to monitor for malaria outbreaks, and that he has received no reports of a large-scale outbreak. He said that the city has a low incidence of malaria, and that the deaths were likely due to other factors, such as lack of medical attention or underlying health conditions.

MANILA, Philippines — GMA Network Inc. has told its artists to spare no one in the upcoming election. The network's president, Juan P. Cojuangco Jr., said that the artists should use their platform to support the candidates of their choice.

Cojuangco said that the artists should not be afraid to speak their minds and to support the candidates they believe in. He said that the artists have a responsibility to the public to use their platform to promote the values and interests of the Filipino people.

The artists have responded positively to Cojuangco's message. They have said that they will use their platform to support the candidates they believe in, and that they will not be afraid to speak their minds.

After 11 years, historical Italy up on the commercial list

By Jennifer P. Salas

ROME, Italy — After 11 years, Italy has been ranked as the most commercial country in the world. The ranking was based on a survey of 100 countries, and Italy was ranked first in the world.

The survey was conducted by a leading international research firm, and it found that Italy has a strong commercial environment. It has a high level of government support for business, and it has a strong legal system that protects the rights of investors.

Italy's ranking is a testament to the country's long history of commerce and trade. It has been a leading power in the world for centuries, and it continues to be a major player in the global economy.

Pharmacol
A 6-hydroxytryptamine (5-HT) receptor antagonist (100 mg/kg) significantly inhibited the 5-HT-induced increase in the release of endogenous 5-HT from the rat small intestine, suggesting that 5-HT<sub>2</sub> receptors are involved in the control of endogenous 5-HT release. The 5-HT<sub>2</sub> antagonist also inhibited the 5-HT-induced increase in the release of endogenous 5-HT from the rat small intestine, suggesting that 5-HT<sub>2</sub> receptors are involved in the control of endogenous 5-HT release.
